

Joaquín Sorolla y Bastida

Samuel Adoquei. The lucky tree

MacLormie. Boy and Duck. Metropolitan museum

Henri Matisse. Dance

Pablo Picasso 1905 At the Lapin Agile

How to Recognize Timeless Art

The pursuit of natural and universal beauty

NEW

A lecture for Artists and creative people
Refreshments will be served

Wisdom and Philosophies of great artists that help recognize and create timeless subjects. Why do some art become timeless and others are cast aside then fade into obscurity? How great artists find ideas that help them create timeless creations. A chance for insightful ideas from a professional artist.

Dates: Will Be Announced

ABOUT THE ARTIST SAM ADOQUEI

Mr. Samuel Adoquei is on the Board of Advisors of the Portrait Society of America, where he gives yearly standing room only lectures. The artist is also on the faculty of the National Academy School of Fine Art. Sam is the author of 'Origin of Inspiration' and 'How Successful Artists Study,' both of which are Strand Books No.1 Bestsellers.

Several articles by and about the artist have appeared in national newspapers and magazines in the United States as well as in publications abroad. Including a highly favorable "New York Times" article about Mr. Adoquei's painting, Sam Adoquei's artworks have been exhibited at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington D.C. the Montgomery Museum of Fine Art, the Memphis Brooks Museum of Art, the Frederick R. Weisman Art Museum, the Bass Museum of Art and other galleries and museums.

Recently, the city of Pomport, Bergerac, France awarded Mr. Adoquei the City's Medal of Honor for his contribution and dedication to the arts and culture of the area.

Click here to watch a short film about the artist:

The artist official website: www.SamAdoquei.com

Books by Sam Adoquei: www.OriginofInspiration.com

Painted by Anders Zorn

UNION SQUARE STUDIO
32 UNION SQUARE EAST,